

Spring 2020 PLAY Program Update

The Promoting Life-skills in Aboriginal Youth (PLAY) program currently partners with 95 First Nation, Métis and Inuit communities and urban Indigenous organizations across 7 provinces/territories: Alberta, British Columbia, Labrador, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Ontario and Yukon. The Spring 2020 Program Update provides a snapshot of the reach and impact that Community Mentors, Right To Play staff and youth themselves have had in their communities between March and May 2020.

4507

children & youth have been reached through regular in-person PLAY programming across 7 provinces/territories between Sep. 2019 and March 2020 of PLAY participants between Sep. and Mar. were girls or gender non-binary children & youth were reached through virtual PLAY programming or safe in-person activities between March and May 2020

3437

17

Youth-Led Initiatives (YLIs) were planned and led by PLAY youth participants between March and May

54

Intergenerational Events (IGEs) were planned and led by Community Mentors between March and May 756

Adults engaged with youth through virtual or safe in-person events between March and May